

Contributors

Filip Keller graduated from the Faculty of Arts of the Charles University in Prague with a specialization in social history (2014). He was then employed in the Security Services Archive. At present he is a PhD student in the Institute of Economic and Social History in the Faculty of Arts, Charles University in Prague. In 2016, he published in a Security Services Archive anthology a study titled 'Dictatorship of the Proletariat seen through the eyes of a working-class correspondent and welder, Jan Doležal'. Mail: f.keller@volny.cz

Jakub Kunert, born 1977, graduated in history and archival science of the Faculty of Arts of the Charles University in Prague with specialization on central banking in Czechoslovakia. As a student he gained experience through internship at various state archives. Since 2004 he has been working as the archivist and since 2009 as the head archivist, of the Czech National Bank (CNB). He represents the CNB in the Academic Council of the European association for Banking and Financial History and in the European Central Bank (Information Management Network).

Mail: jakub.kunert@seznam.cz

Milena Lenderová, professor at the University of Pardubice, studied history and French at the Philosophical Faculty at the Charles University in Prague during 1965–1971. Since 1992 she has been working in the History Department at the South Bohemian University in České Budějovice, South Bohemia. From 1999 to 2007, she was a head of the Institute of Languages and Humanities (Faculty of Languages and Humanities, Faculty of Arts) at the University in Pardubice. Her topics are the history 19th century, particularly the history of everyday life, gender history and the history of Czech-French relations.

Mail: Milena.Lenderova@upce.cz

Jakub Střelec is a student of social history within the Master's programme at the Institute of Economic and Social History, Faculty of Arts, Charles University in Prague. In the academic year 2016/2017 he studied at Aberystwyth University in Wales, where he attended seminars in the field of Welsh labour historiography. His further interests are the social history of medicine and the social history of communist dictatorships. Mail: strelec.jakub@gmail.com